

I am against any weakening of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act -- the "NO CALL LIST". Consumerism and the advertisement that goes with it is infiltrating our lives on a daily basis. We cannot escape it, and it's horrible. At least give us peace at home -- I would like the government to please preserve my privacy at home by leaving the Telephone Consumer Protection Act as is. Thank you.
Isabelle Kralj